SUBJECT : Interview with [REDACTED], Chief, Regulations Control Staff, Management Staff.

REFERENCE: Memo for the Record dtd 15 May 57, same subject.

1. On 31 May 1957 I interviewed [REDACTED], Chief of the Regulations Control Staff, with specific reference to the information which I had received to the effect that [REDACTED] was permitted to take compensatory time for work done at home on occasion in lieu of coming to the office for regular duty hours.

2. [REDACTED] came to the Regulations Control Staff at about the same time that he did and that very shortly thereafter [REDACTED] proposed that he take [REDACTED] as the Deputy Chief of the Staff. He said that he resisted this request since he knew of [REDACTED] reputation in the Commercial Staff and did not believe that it was appropriate for her to be in a job where she had to deal with a lot of people in the Agency. Subsequently [REDACTED] personally started assigning tasks to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] arranged for her to sit in the same office with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] instructed [REDACTED] was merely there for "quarters and rations" and that she was not responsible to him in any way nor was he responsible for her work. Shortly thereafter [REDACTED] grade GS-13, using the slot provided for the Deputy Chief of the Regulations Control Staff.

3. [REDACTED] said that there was an agreement between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to the effect that she could work at home in lieu of at the office and that she could claim compensatory time for work which she did at home during off-duty hours. (It seems to be a laughing matter throughout the Management Staff that [REDACTED] gets her best ideas after 2:00 a.m. in the morning.) He also said that [REDACTED] had on some occasions stayed at home and worked in lieu of coming to the office and that she frequently claimed compensatory time for work done at home. His Time & Attendance Clerk is obliged to accept her word for the amount of time worked. He commented that he was concerned about this situation and had planned to mention it to [REDACTED]. He believes that it is extremely bad for the Management Staff.

4. [REDACTED] summarized his remarks by stating that he regarded [REDACTED] as being a "freewheeler of the first water" and added that in his opinion she had about the worst leave record of anyone in the Agency; furthermore, he said he suspected that the compensatory time arrangement was a subterfuge.
